Credit Union Welcomes New Volunteer Advisor Attorney R. Patrick Flynn to advise Board of Directors at South Carolina Federal Credit Union

(N. CHARLESTON, S.C.)—Oct. 30, 2007— South Carolina Federal Credit Union has selected R. Patrick Flynn to serve as its newest Volunteer Advisor to the board of directors.

As a Volunteer Advisor, Flynn will train in credit union philosophy and operations, attend monthly board meetings and contribute to decisions that determine the credit union's progress. Given his areas of expertise, Flynn participates as an advisor to the Facilities Committee.

Flynn is an attorney and partner/owner of Robertson & Hollingsworth law firm in Charleston, where he practices in the areas of business and construction industry litigation and counsel, with an emphasis on architect/engineer and contractor liability, commercial and government contracts and corporate and real estate development.

He has served active duty as a U.S. Navy Surface Warfare Officer and he currently is a captain, Surface Warfare Officer, in the U.S. Navy Reserve.

"Mr. Flynn's record of professional and military achievements speaks to his high standards and personal integrity," said Scott Woods, president and CEO of South Carolina Federal. "He will provide valuable assistance to the credit union's board of directors."

Flynn and his wife, Anne Schiller Flynn, M.D., celebrated the birth of their first child, a son named Robert, in October. The family resides in Charleston.
