Credit Union Hosts Workshop on Credit Reports Free public seminar among many aiming to reach over 2,000 people this year

(N. CHARLESTON, S.C.) – March 1, 2008 – South Carolina Federal Credit will host a free financial education workshop to inform members and the public about the significance of credit reports.

The workshop, "Understanding Your Credit Report," will take place March 25, from 6:30 – 7:30 p.m. at South Carolina Federal's Northeast Columbia branch lobby, 2350 LeGrand Road, Columbia.

The presentation will cover the elements contained in a credit report and how lenders use the information to approve consumers for loans and determine rates of interest.

To register, visit scfedseminars.org, call 569.4927 (Charleston) or 800.845.0432, ext. 4927 (Nationwide), or email name and phone number to financialeducation@scfederal.org.

South Carolina Federal this year plans to educate over 2,000 people by holding free financial literacy workshops in the communities it serves.
